Abstract: ( 200-300 words)

Only one abstract submission will be accepted for each presenter except Keynote speakers and Invited Lectures. Contributions on all aspects of composite materials and structures are invited for oral and poster presentations at the conference of ACCM-6. The paper presented at the conference must be an original paper involving new contributions to the composite materials science/technology and its related fields, and it must be unpublished elsewhere in any language. Electronic forms (in MS-Word and PDF format) of succinct one-page abstract ( 200-300 words) should be submitted to the Secretariat of ACCM-6 via the e-mail: accm6@jsms.jp . When submitting your abstract you must provide your paper title, affiliation and e-mail information for all authors, summarize your paper, and identify the contact author who will receive correspondence about the submission and who must submit the manuscript and all revisions. And also, your abstract submission must include three to five keywords in order to indicate the main topics discussed in the paper, and provide oral or poster presentation. The organizing committee of ACCM-6 will award Best Student Paper Awards through competition. For the graduate students and/or fresh PhD graduates, please send an email to the Secretariat for their eligibility at the time of submitting the abstract.
